TORCH
METHUEN

Dedication

To the memory of Miss Carrie Lyman who, in her many years of service, proved herself a dedicated teacher, a faithful mentor, and an understanding friend to all who sought to attain her own high standards of work and conduct, we respectfully dedicate this yearbook.

Foreword

Many friendships and countless happy events have brought us joy during our days at Tenney High. As the course of our lives is being rapidly changed in this age of satellites and missiles, our memories will tend to become blurred. To help restore a clear image of those who formed such a vital part of our lives for four happy years, the "Torch" presents a panorama of our senior year. To my staff and the many who have aided us in producing this yearbook my sincere and heartfelt thanks.

LYNN HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF NURSING

Lynn Hospital School of Nursing, fully approved by the Massachusetts State Board of Nurse Registration and the National Nursing Accrediting Service, offers a three-year course leading to a diploma and state registration. Graduates desiring to practice in other states may apply for a license by reciprocity. The Hospital, which is approved by the American College of Surgeons, the American Hospital Association, and by the American Medical Association for the training of Residents and Interns, offers outstanding clinical experience for the student nurse.

Excellent recreational, social, health and instructional programs are under the direction of a well-qualified faculty. A minimum of sixteen units of high school work are necessary for admission and eight and one-half of these must be in the required area.

Scholarships and grants are available to young women possessing superior scholastic ability and acceptable personal qualifications. Further assistance in the form of loans consisting of adjustments in tuition or fees is available to applicants with a satisfactory record.

The total tuition for the three years is $300.00 with $200.00 payable on admission to the school and $50.00 payable at the beginning of the second year and $50.00 payable at the beginning of the third year. The School of Nursing assumes the following expenses in behalf of the student while in the school: complete maintenance and health and sickness care. Classes are admitted in September. Class Prophecy

Time: 1969 Place: Broadway, Methuen

Cliff: Excuse me, miss, could you tell me where the new Methuen High School is?

Elly: Why certainly. Well, if it isn't Cliff Haller! Gosh. I haven't seen you for such a long time!

Cliff: Why, Elly Wilk! It's good to see someone I know in this big city. What have you been doing with yourself?

Elly: I'm principal of the Searles Elementary School; and the class of '58 is well represented on the faculty. Ruth Habeeb is the assistant principal; Fran Foster is the reading supervisor; Faith Holden teaches handwriting; Peg Conom is the drawing teacher; Elaine Gueli is the guidance director; and Mel Melisi is the gym instructor. But what brings you here?

Cliff: I'm here to attend the National Convention of Engineers and Draftsmen. I arrived this morning by Methuen Transworld Airlines, which is owned by Pete Guglielmino. The plane was piloted by Walt Margerison and co-piloted by Jack Joyce. Boy, what a ride! Jack was telling me that Jan Russell, Marilyn Gagne. Millie Frye, Peggy Fox, Regina Rudis, and Stella Pepin are serving as hostesses for the same airline.

Elly: Some of our classmates are also here for the convention. They are: Chairman Camie Fichera, Bob Mailhot, Bob Hertrick, John Hobbs, Neil Perry, Jim Cameron. Larry Strondak, Bill Haswell, Bob Murad, Bill Kady, Bill Dalton, and John Seria.

Cliff: As I walked along Broadway, I noticed that many of our old friends are operating successful businesses right here in Methuen.

Elly: Yes, just look at those signs! Hajjar's Meat Market; Crucius' Typewriter Shop; Jusko's Moonray Bakery; Brouck Detective Agency; Pauk & Wholley Pharmacy; Lee Oriental Tea Company; Crossley & Tombarelli Garage: The Gagnon-Skelly Salvage Company; and the Holgate Fruit & Produce Co. They buy their products from the Horskin-Reitano Farm, and their legal business is taken care of by the Peront Associates.

Cliff: By the way, I'm staying at the McMorrow Hilton Hotel. Jim has bought the old Hilton chain and has become a big success in the hotel business.

Elly: Yes, Chris Jesser manages a beauty shoppe in the McMorrow Hilton, and making over the customers' faces are Georgia Scanlon and Betty Roberts. The most widely used product in the shoppe are the Doris Bernard cosmetics.

Right next door to the hotel, Carole Meyer and Nella Sanborn are managing a school for cheerleaders.

Cliff: In a letter I recently received from Bert Tkach, he said that Ted Benoit is making a name for himself as a psychologist. Business must be pretty good! His secretaries are Diana Higginbottom and Bev Kennedy. Joyce DeAndrus is the receptionist.

Elly: Speaking of Bert, he's teaching history at the high school, which was designed by George Pomphret, Jim Piccerillo, and Dick Leach. Eddie Reed is the Principal there, and some of the teachers are Bob Andrew—science. Bob Kennedy—Latin, Jane Kinlock—biology. Lee Ward—shorthand. Ruth Doyle—art. Priscilla Hurlbutt—English. The coaches are Ursula Stundze. Bob Tetler, and Larry Waite.

Cliff: Another new building is the massive Slomba office building, which was designed by Stan Puzniak and Russ Brearley.

Elly: I know. Some secretaries working there are Shirley Ricci—real estate agency: Judy Shearer—Optometrist office; Elaine Eliet, Dot Riley, and Bev Rossi—lawyer's office; Mary Derderian and Eunice Baker—travel agency: Jackie Gagne, Eleanor Antonelli, and Mary Perdis—theatrical agency; Phyl Whitaker and Geri Ferraro—doctor's office; Jean Neale, Carolyn Wlodyka, and Pat Mahoney—insurance agency; Carol Epp and Grace Barraclough—doctor's office; Carol Adams—Roeger Beauty Salon; Barbara Sugden—dental laboratory; Bette Ventura—detective agency; and Bev Grasso, who has finally, after eleven years, graduated from McIntosh, is doing secretarial work for a criminal lawyer.

Cliff: Bert also told me that Barbara Alcarese is operating her own library, and she employs Athena Felides, Cynthia Sabbagh, and Gloria Lamontagne as bookworms.

While I was in New York, I saw Pat O'Neil, Pat Gallant, Moe Metcalfe, Mary Laorenza, Vin Greco, and Chuck Depietro, who are still performing as the Darnelles.

Elly: At the Powder Puff, here in Methuen, Mike Ferrara and his band are performing with Sandy Seglin, Jackie Boudreau, and Tim Santangelo as the featured vocalists.

Cliff: I noticed as I was walking from the airport that Joan Cyr, Margerite Max, Mary Lineban, and Clarice Miele are operating a beauty salon.

Elly: Yes, and located in the same block is the First National, which is managed by John Taylor: Barbara Aubert is assistant manager: Shirley Patch is the accountant: Dot Elden is the bookkeeper: Gertrude Giardinella, Elsie Esperian, and Pat Brett are cashiers.

The dancing school owned by Mary Ellen Levesque was built by John Arakalian and Eddie Habeeb. The advertising for the school was done by Rosie Savona, Sandi Potvin, and Bernice Cieslak.

Cliff: I have heard that the accounting firm of Maziarz, Morelle, and Iannalfo is very successful. Their motto is: "We count anything, even sheep!"

What is the building on Mama Frye's Hill?

Elly: That is the newest wing of the Bon Voyage Hospital. John McAndrew and Byron McCarthy designed the electrical wiring, which was installed by Jim Delaney and Gene Fragala. The landscaping was done by Bill Hoffmeier.

Cliff: There must be quite a representation of the class working as nurses there.

Elly: Yes, four of the supervisors are Jane Hodge, Marie Lambert, Carol Los, and Jo Sapuppo: the physical therapists are Connie Donovan, Sandy Platt, Sandy Pierog, and Lee Connell: doing well as X-ray technicians are Lucky Nassar and Ann Hamilton: Pat Zelles, Muggs Epp, Rae Farelli, Judy Kilcoyne, Judy Houghton, and Dorrie Budd are all working in surgery. Carole Marsland and Carolyn Fay are working at the switchboard.

Have you heard anything of Carole Wilson lately?

Cliff: Yes, she's the vice president of the First National Bank in Boston, which is owned by Jerry Andrew. The tellers are Pat Cross, Bonnie Murphy, Carol Murach, and Joanne Ferraro. Branda Marsh is the cashier; and the Board of Trustees consists of Joyce Lees, Brenda Mellor, Caroline Mathews, Marilyn Prunier, Barbara Lawrie, Joan Martelle, and Cathy Bergman.

Elly: Did you see in the New York Times that Nina Nicolosi and Marianne Badalato are the top clothes designers in the country, and that they designed a wardrobe for Mo Burke, who is touring the world after being crowned Miss America of 1968?

Cliff: Yes, and did you know that Joe Sobel and Jack Hughes are on the staff of the Times? Joe is the weather forecaster and Jack is a cartoonist.

Elly: Yes, many of our friends are in the news this year. Our class is well represented in the coming elections.

Cliff: I know. Tim McCarthy, teamed with Ed Skeirik, is running for president against Ken Vivenzio and Jerry Fay. Khalaf Khalaf is running for governor of Massachusetts.

Elly: The Boston Celtics won the championship again. Johnny Braciska and Chuck Hamblet played an important part in their victories.

Cliff: They are very successful in the off-season. Chuch is president of the Boys' Clubs of America: and Johnny is running a magazine distributing agency.

Elly: Did you hear that Anne Fluet is designing rockets for the government?

Cliff: Yes. From her plans, both the Navy and the Air Force have built rockets, which they will send to the moon. Ricky Ralph, Dave Jean, and Lionel Dupont compose the Air Force crew; while Frank Hayden, Bob Habeeb, Ed Elias, Dick Bennett, Bill Bosco, Dick Goebel, Dick Pirozek, and Paul Fluet make up the Navy crew. The top brass thought that it would be quite a contest to see who would reach the moon first; but it seems that Dick Lynch, Dick Carbonneau, and Bob Lima "borrowed" the Air Force rocket and beat everyone in the race to the moon!

Elly: Yes, it looks that way. I hope you enjoy your stay in Methuen, and I wish you luck at the convention.

Cliff: So long, but maybe I'll see you again before I leave.

Elly: Either that or the next class reunion.

Cliff: Bye.

Elly: Good-bye.

Class Will

We the members of the Senior Class of Tenney High School, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this last will and testament.

To the younger members of the group, Judy Bevin and Dan O'Neil, we do leave our "Rocking Times," Pat O'Neil, Raye Farelli, Higgie, Cal Wlodyka, Dinne Sleeper, and Pat Mahoney.

I, Pat Brett, leave to my cousin, Marie Chadwick, my ability to be the last one into all my classes.

We, William Kady, Sanford Horsken, and Khalaf E. Khalaf, leave our trouble ambassador, Sam Gabour, to take the place of our former ambassador, Leo Jusko, to the Class of '59.

We, Chris, Pat, and Bonnie leave—IN A HURRY!

We, Marrianne Badolato and Peggy Conom, do hereby leave our desert boots and shetlands, to be filled by two collegiate freshmen, Brenda Badolato and Paula Conom.

I, Jane Hodge, do hereby leave to my brother, Russell, my seat in Mr. Kennedy's American History class.

I, Shirley Ricci, leave to my cousin, Elaine Kudzia, my editorial talents.

I, Joyce DeAndrus, leave to Miss Coulson the memories of a quiet well behaved girl.

I, Carole Wilson, leave to next year's class treasurer the nickname, Sandy MacWilson.

I, Joyce Lees, leave to Eddie Croteau the privilege of experiencing the trials and tribulations of being President of the Student Council.

I, Lucky Nassar, leave to some ambitious Junior, my entire social life, with the wish that he or she may benefit by it as much as I have.

I, Carole Meyer, leave two wilted blue pom poms to Head Cheerleader, Jan Pollicella.

I, Arlene Kahan, leave Mr. Ramsbottom a box of cigars.

We, Chuck DePietro, and Don Crossley, leave to next year's seniors who have Miss Coulson for homeroom, the right to use the corridor along the side of the auditorium as a drag strip for racing to lunch.

We, the loquacious girls of Tenney's most famous lunch table, Mo, Pat, Kathy, Dot, Ruthie, Faith, Pat, Jackie, Peggy, Mel, Cathy, Elsie, Dinni, and Pat, leave our connoisseur, Mr. Lister.

I, Mel Melisi, do hereby bequeath to some deserving Junior girl who has Miss Lange for homeroom, my ability to write said Junior's own notes and make them look authentic.

I, Khalaf Khalaf, leave Mrs. Derby my seat in the third row.

We, Josephine Sapuppo and Cynthia Sabbagh, leave to two deserving juniors, the honor and privilege of sleep-walking the corridors each morning while collecting the attendance slips.

I, Jeff Lee, leave my tea leaves to the cafeteria.

We, Mr. Rushton's girls, Pat, Faith, and Ruthie, leave our chubby little blistered fingers.

We, Joe Sobel, Dick Slomba, and Ken Vivenzio, leave Mrs. Richardson Peace and Quiet.

I, Maryanne Badalato, leave Mrs. Monroe still wondering where I get all my gum.

I, Carole Murach, leave to a deserving junior, the burnt food in Home Economics.

Bob Kennedy leaves Denise LeClair in the custody of Chuck Preneveau.

I, Carolyn Wlodyka, leave to some weary junior the wholesome task of straightening out Mr. Ramsbottom's desk which at the end of every week looks like the remains of a hurricane.

I, Brenda Mellor, leave to my cousin, Alan Sifferlen, Tenney High with the hopes that his last two years are better than mine.

I, Cliff Haller, leave to Elaine Kolba a compass with which to find her way around school.

We, Pat O'Neil, Cathy Bergman, and Pat Mahoney, leave to Judy Bevin the right to stop Dan O'Neil from getting to lunch on time.

We, Margery Pauk and Mary Ellen Levesque leave our back seats in Miss Lange's sixth period English class to some lucky juniors in hopes that they may have as much fun as we had.

I, Nella Dawn Sanborn, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my permission slip from Mr. Lister to some undeserving junior.

We, the members of the Senior Class do hereby leave to the incoming Freshmen, four years of hard work and fun; to this year's Juniors, the privileges and enjoyment of being a Senior; and to all Underclassmen, the privileges of using this fine school in hope that they enjoy it as much as we have.

Signed and witnessed this 9th day of June, in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, as the Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1958 of Tenney High School.

Signed
